MORAL TEACHING

Every Sunday, Rohan and his papa went for an evening walk. Near the park bench, they often saw a quiet man with a black dog. A cardboard sign next to him said 'Help!'. One day, Rohan noticed the man had no food, and the dog looked thirsty. Rohan held his milk bottle and looked at Papa. Papa nodded. Rohan walked over and gave the bottle to the man. The man smiled for the first time. "Thank you", he whispered. The dog wagged its tail. On the way to the home, Papa said, "You shared what you had. That is kindness." After that, Rohan saved part of his pocket money to buy biscuits for the dog.

Q.1- Which moral value did you learn from Rohan?

Q.2- Write two points on how you can help someone in your area.

Q.3- Why do you think Papa let Rohan give the milk himself?
